

Program Outcome of Masters

- PO1. Develop an in depth awareness of History as a discipline and to have a systematic and critical understanding of historical events.
- PO2. Understand the various historical processes those have gone into making of different societies, cultures and civilizations.
- PO3. Realize the exciting ways in which a historian practices his/her craft.
- PO4. Realize the relevance of history in the contemporary world, and to analyze the socio political developments from a historical perspective.
- PO5. Gain acquaintance with the relatively updated historical interpretations.
- PO6. Recognize historical evolution process to creatively contribute into building of the nation
- PO7. Develop critical thinking, independent research and writing skills
- PO8. Understand gender, caste, concept of Human Rights and relevance of Environmental Studies.

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES OF M.A HISTORY

- PSO 1- Gaining understanding of and access to Existing Knowledge which includes locating published research in history and identifying the areas which demanding further study..
- PSO 2- Exhibiting Command of Existing Knowledge which includes both theory and empirical applications.
- PSO 3- Displaying Ability to Draw Out Existing Knowledge which includes ability to write a short summary of a published journal article.
- PSO 4- Utilizing Existing Knowledge to Explore un explored areas: To use a qualitative/ quantitative approach to analyze historic events utilizing modern research tools and methodologies.
- PSO 5- :Think critically, independently and creatively to synthesize concepts, to analyze historical events and make interpretations leading to generalizations

COURSE OUTCOME OF THE MASTERS PROGRAMME IN HISTORY

Core course 1: Perspectives on Historiography (HY010101)

SEMESTER I

CO1 – Develop a clear Understanding of the discipline of History

CO2- Understand the pattern and relevance of documenting events in the past

CO3 – Make a critical analysis of how history has been a tool in transforming the society

CO4 – Review the various forms and structures of historiography on a time and space basis.

Core Course 2: Transition from Pre-state to State Societies in Indian History (HY010102)

CO1: Become knowledgeable about the process of social transition from one form to another

CO2: Understand in details about the characteristic features of each formation

CO3: Grow acquaintance with relevant social theories and its application.

CO4: Develop conceptual insights into the transitional processes of early societies.

Core Course 3: History of Kerala till the End of the Perumal Rule (HY010103)

CO1- Historiographical understanding about ancient and medieval period of Kerala

CO2- Understand the various historical processes in early history of Kerala

CO3- Analytical knowledge on the growth of Kerala society and Polity

CO4- Critical knowledge of cultural life in ancient and medieval Kerala

Core Course 4: Pre-Colonial Indian Economy: Production, Appropriation and Exchange (HY010104)

CO1- Understand the major economic processes in Pre-colonial India

CO2- Identify the particular economic institutions and structures developed during the period

CO3- Learn the growth of production appropriation and exchange and its tools and modes.

CO4-Understand the evolution of production relations during the period.

Core Course 5: History of Social Revolutions in the World (HY010105)

CO1- Be enlightened on the pathways of Revolutions that changed the societies

CO2- Develop understanding of revolutions and its impacts on affected societies

CO3- Realize the conditions and agents of various world revolutions

CO4-Analytical knowledge on the structural changes created by the revolutions

SEMESTER 2

Core Course 6: History of Social Institutions and Structures of Early India (HY010201)

CO1- Understand the history of institutions and structures of Early societies in India

- CO2- Develop knowledge about what Institutions mean and how they evolved and worked.
- CO3- Gain insights into the historical roots of social institutions and structures
- CO4- Analyze the role of persisting institutions in the evolution of society

Core Course 7: History of Social Formations in Kerala AD 1200-1800(HY010202)

- CO1- Critical understanding about pre-modern history of Kerala
- CO2- Acquire knowledge about the social formation process and its varied mechanisms
- CO3- Understand the inter connection and inter sectional relations in early Kerala
- CO4- Knowledge on socio-political power relations and cultural mechanisms with an interdisciplinary perspective.

Core Course 8: Debates on Medieval India (HY010203)

- CO1- Informed on various sources for recreating the medieval period of India
- CO2- Knowledge on various concepts, institutions and ideologies of medieval period
- CO3- Understand the cultural and social dichotomy during medieval period in India
- CO4- Analyse the growth and decline a new economic and political structure

Core Course 9: Reflections on Women's History and Gender in Modern India (HY010204)

- CO1- Understand Gender in the larger Indian context
- CO2- Knowledge on bringing into light the life of 'unknown' or the 'ordinary'
- CO3- Gather knowledge on women's life in the patriarchal Indian society and polity
- CO4- Learn the feminist interventions in history and its implications

Core Course 10: India: The Making of a Colony (HY010205)

- CO1- Critical understanding of the colonial process in India
- CO2- Gain knowledge about historical process of making India a colony
- CO3- Understand the modern approaches towards colonialism and its implications
- CO4- Realize how colonizer and the colonized jointly facilitated colonization

SEMESTER 3

Core Course 11: History and Social Theory (HY010301)

- CO1- Empower students for a reflexive thinking on the processes of History
- CO2- Develop major theoretical perspectives
- CO3- Create an intellectual disposition while studying historical events and structures
- CO4- Develop analytical skills to make critical analysis of any research problem

Core Course 12: History of Modern Kerala (HY010302)

- CO1- Develop knowledge on various social revolutions in modern Kerala
- CO2- Analytical skill in various schools of thoughts emerged and flourished in Kerala
- CO3- Realizations regarding the socio political conditions and catalysts which created protests
- CO4- Earn knowledge on the socio-political and economic milieu of colonial Kerala

Core Course 13: State and Society (C.A.D. 1000-1800) (HY010303)

- CO1- Understanding of the patterns of power relations existed in medieval India
- CO2- Learn the correspondence as well as interface between the social relations and power structure
- CO3- Develop a holistic appreciation of political power against its social milieu
- CO4- Understand the underlining process behind state power

Core Course 14: Approaches to the Practice of History (HY010304)

- CO1- Understand the basic tools, techniques and methodology of research in history
- CO2- Develop skill to gauge records of the past and cull out evidential statements
- CO3- Practice in analyzing data to derive information and knowledge in prescribed form
- CO4- Gain thorough theoretical knowledge in textual analysis and source criticism

Core Course 15: Maritime History of India (HY010304)

- CO1- Understand how circulatory motion in Indian Ocean shaped Indi's civilizational march
- CO2- Understand Indian subcontinent in all its geographical diversity and rich coastal lines
- CO3- Knowledge on India's position in the maritime history of the World
- CO4- Enhance the research potential of the students in the maritime history of the nation

SEMESTER 4

Core Course 16: Situating Environmental History of India (HY010401)

- CO1- Skill to contextualize human nature in relation with cotemporary environment problems
- CO2- Understanding to transmit certain values pivotal in preserving nature and the ecosystem
- CO3- Educated in exposing dangers those are connected with the notions of development
- CO4- Identify local environmental problems and there by become change agents

Core Course 17: India: Nation in the Making (HY010402)

- CO1- Understanding to locate and conceptualize the notion of nation in Indian context
- CO2- Learn to identify various agents of colonial modernity in Indian context
- CO2- Develop a critical knowledge on economic perspective of colonialism
- CO4- Understanding India as a community with diversity and plurality

Elective Course 1: History of Medicines and Health Systems in Modern India (HY800401)

- CO1- Gain knowledge on various medical knowledge and health systems evolved in India
- CO2- Realize how colonial hegemony and its power structure changed medical systems in India
- CO3- Recognize colonial notions of body, alternate medicines and health systems
- CO4- Identify Modern medicine as a tool of colonial hegemony and power exertion

Elective Course 2: Knowledge Systems in Pre modern India (HY800402)

- CO1- Develop a holistic Understanding of India's Pre-modern intellectual legacy
- CO2- Demystify the past and identify the traditional science and technology more sensibly
- CO3- Rediscover traditional wisdom using new theoretical tools
- CO4- Appreciate the multiple trajectories in Indian Knowledge Systems

Elective Course 3: Perspectives on Human Rights in India (HY800403)

- CO1- Develop critical reflections on citizenship and human rights
- CO2- Understand human rights at global and local level
- CO3- Learn the political contexts in which human rights operate
- CO4- Identify the UN strategies for safeguarding human rights in a global context

Core Course 21: Project (HY010403)

- CO1- Acquire historical research skills in effective use of archives and libraries
- CO2- Develop skills in using non-conventional sources like films paintings and oral testimonies

Zero Credit Course: Study Tour

- CO1 – Acquire new concepts from outside the classrooms and from real life situations
- CO2 – Skill for effective learning, exchange of ideas and personal development through explorations

